CARNIVAL LIGHT OPERA WILL BE FINELY STAGED

Splendid Natural Setting is Discovered on Punahou Grounds —Rehearsals Soon

One of the premier features of the Mid-Pacific Carnival of 1915 is now well under way, the elaborate production of the opera "The Sho Gun" at Punahou College grounds the evening of Tuesday, February 23. The opera, one of the most noted efforts from the pen of George Ade, whose name is sufficient guarantee of its worth, will be given on the Ewa facade of the C. R. Bishop hall, a setting ideally arranged for the work in hand. This was planned by the building committee, at the head of which was the late J. B. Atherton, for an outdoor Greek theater.

The architecture of the building permits of wonderful possibilities in artistic "stage" decorations. For some unknown reason its adaptability was never discovered until the carnival committee struck upon it for the staging of the "Sho Gun."
Will Lewers, late reading man with Mande Adams, has consented to act as one of the stage directors; L.
Young Corrothers of the Honolulu School for Boys will act in a like capacity, while "Sonny" Cunha will have charge of the splendid chorus which is rapidly taking shape. With the training of Mr. Lewers in matters theatrical and the artistic ability of Mr. Corrothers added to Mr. Cunha's well known efficiency in handling the balance of the work, "The Sho Gun" gives promise of being a most successful event from every possible standpoint.

While no definite decision has yet been made there have been received a number of applications for the lead parts in this opera and it is expected that the cast will be announced within the next few days. The rehearsal material was received this morning with the arrival of the Matsonia and the real work of training the participants will commence almost immediately.

When the decorating work on the Bishop hall is completed it will resemble a beautiful Japanese temple and the present facade will be completely covered with decorations. The facilities for the introduction of "specialty" numbers are unlimited, the architecture of the building lending itself admirably to the ability of the artists.

Those who were fortunate enough to witness the production of the "Mayor of Tokio" last year will be surprised to learn that those at the helm of "The Sho Gun" guarantee that it will be a finer and more finished offering from every standpoint.

The public of Honolulu, incidentally, is taking a keen interest in this production and it is believed that the entire cast will be chosen very rapidly after the principals are decided upon.

Morning on CHANGE

Signs of awakening activity were seen today, although but one sale was recorded. Interest is still far from normal, however, Hawaiian Sugar held firm on its weekend rise, five shares selling at 33. Although there was no rise an upward tendency was recorded in Hawaiian Pineapple, 36 being bid. This is one point higher than the last selling price; 37 1/2 was asked, however, and there were no transactions. Between boards 25 shares of Hawaiian Sugar went at 33 and 30 of Honolulu Brewing and Malting Company at 14.

The directors of the Waialua Sugar Company at a meeting yesterday decided to begin the payment of a divident of 1/2 of 1 per cent a month, to be continued until further notice.

A 25-cent dividend has been declared by the Hawaiian Sugar Company, while the Honolulu Sugar Company has declared a dividend of 50 cents.

Personal Mention

W. W. GOODALE and Mrs. Goodale of Waialua arrived on the Mauna Kea
